

PRESS RELEASE, OCTOBER 17TH 2018

WHAT:

Premier showing of The Old Spanish Trail, a 55 minute's long documentary film by Benedicte Schoyen.

In 2014 and 2015, three members of the California Back Country Horsemen Association rode the Old Spanish Trail from California to Santa Fe. This was the first time the complete trail had been ridden since the mid 1800's.

The event starts with Ned Clark, the composer of the film performing the theme song for the movie. After the screening the three riders, Richard Waller, Otis Calef and Jim Clark will talk about their experience and a Q&A with director Benedicte Schoyen and the riders.

The event is free and the space has graciously been donated by the La Fonda Hotel.

WHERE:

In the Lumpkins Ballroom at the La Fonda Hotel

WHEN:

Friday November 2, 2018. 1pm-3pm.

MORE INFO ABOUT FILM:

<https://www.oldspanishtrailfilm.com/>

CONTACT:

Benedicte Schoyen

Cell phone: 310 498 4786

Email: Benedicteschoyen@hotmail.com

Follow us on Facebook

